

RIVERDALE COMMUNITY ARTS AND LETTERS CLUB

Riverdale Branch: All meetings Wednesday at 6 pm

September 21	Peggy Perdue, Toronto Public Library, "Tales of the Great Detective" . The curator of Toronto Public Library's Arthur Conan Doyle Collection discusses the Sherlock Holmes phenomenon. Also: Mystery book swap – bring one and take one away
October 19	House Calls with My Camera , a National Film Board award winning film on frail seniors living at home. The film highlights the lack of home care services for a growing segment of our population. Introduction and discussion, Dr. Mark Nowaczynski
November 23	Sharon Crawford, editor and writer-in-residence, Canadian Authors Association, "Crafting a Personal Memoir" .
December 7	Olive Senior, Jamaican-Canadian award winning author of Dancing Lessons , reading, discussion and book signing
January 18	BYOB – Bring your own book or recommend books or types of books you would like to discuss (Biography? Mysteries? Fiction? Non-fiction?)
February 15	Kadija Barry, Host Volunteer Coordinator, WoodGreen Community Services, "The art of Volunteering" – so you want to be a volunteer? Discussion of venues, joys and pitfalls.
March 21	Ken Greenberg, city planner and author of "Walking Home: The Life and Lessons of a City Builder" , discussion and book signing
April 18	Book discussion evening
May 16	TBA

For questions about the events, please email: susanp@pathcom.com or call

Riverdale Branch
370 Broadview Ave
416-393-7720

torontopubliclibrary.ca

